

ENUGU LITERARY SOCIETY.

ELS ACTIVITY REPORT 2021

Summary

The Enugu Literary Society hosted a total of 14 literary programs in 2021, which included, 5 bookclub meetings, 6 open Mic sessions, 3 BookJams and our third version of our literary hangout. These meetings were a mixture of virtual and physical meetings, our meeting venue consistently being the Eastern Library and WABMA Campus hall. Except for the first Open Mic session that held at radio Nigeria in January which was anchored by Michael Osiagor before the Enugu Literary Society had relocated. Evidence of some of the event flyers below

1. In March, we held a literary event in celebration of world poetry day.

2. We hosted BookJams and invited authors like Nani Boi, Olisaemeka Gerald, Mr. Obi Ngene, Kaitlin Gee, Sarah Akpu, Ms. Chizuloke Olisaekee and Ugo Eze.
3. In April, we kicked off with Ogadinma by Ukamaka Olisakwe for our first bookclub session. Subsequently, we read Indigo by Molar Wood, Shy Sharon by Chizuloke Olisaekee, Python and the Rainmaker by Ugo Eze, When the Vultures Descend by Obi Ngene, and a gathering of tribes by Evans Ufeli.
4. In December, we had a third version of our literary hangout which first happened in 2018, the second one in 2019 at Bon Sunshine hotel, and this third one at Eastern Library Compound.
